The full name of the Award recipient is publicly announced on the Village website, in one or more weekly Village Update newsletters, and at the Village's Canada Day commemoration on July 1st (in respect of which it is preferred but not mandatory that the Award is announced and a plaque presented to the recipient in person by the Mayor or Acting Mayor).

The $500 monetary component of the award is paid to the recipient in Canadian funds upon delivery to the municipal office of an official half- or full-year course official transcript demonstrating full-time study (as defined by the applicable institution) at any Canadian Information Centre for International Credentials (CICIC)-accredited post-secondary education institution. Recipients may defer delivery of such transcript to the end of the second scholastic year following the award, after which time the monetary component, but not the award itself, is rescinded.
