Lions Bay Fire Rescue is a volunteer fire department that services the area along the Sea to Sky highway between West Vancouver and Furry Creek, responding to emergencies that involve fire, rope-rescue, medical aid and auto-extrication. We are highly trained and volunteer countless hours in preparation and emergency response. Keeping the level of our service at a maximum requires not only time and effort, but also involves funding for our highly specialized equipment and training, which we secure in part through our annual Firefighters' Day fundraiser.
